

Workshops
Summer 2010
UKE Campus W 30, Seminar Room

Title: MatLab Introduction

Docent: Falk Eippert

Date: Saturday, July 24, 2010 and Sunday, July 25, 2010

Time: 10:00 – 18:00

What: Theory and practice are taught in parallel with students working on laptops during the course.

Title: A picture is worth a 1000 words

Docent: Mareike Menz / Andreas Marschner

Date: Wednesday, August 04, 2010

Time: 14:00 – 18:00

What: This course will demonstrate how data can best be presented and then show you how to practically do it with various software programs, most of which are open source.

Title: English small talk for scientists

Docent: Eszter Schoell

Date: Wednesday, August 18, 2010

Time: 14:00 – 18:00

What: What to do at a conference after the poster / talk is presented.

Title: Basic Statistics

Docent: Matthias Gamer

Date: Wednesday, September 01, 2010

Time: 14:00 – 18:00

What: A refresher on the basics of statistics – t-tests, f-tests, regression, correlation, etc.

Title: How to write a scientific paper

Docent: Christian Büchel

Date: Wednesday, September 15, 2010

Time: 14:00 – 18:00

What: This workshop will show you how to successfully write for a scientific journal.

Title: Basic Neurobiology

Docent: Dorthe Belgradt

Date: Wednesday, October 06, 2010

Time: 13:00 – 18:00

What: This course will give a basic introduction into common techniques used in neurobiology. After the theoretical part you will be invited into the lab to try out the discussed techniques yourself.