Multimodal Stimulus Set (MULTIMOST) Statement of Use

In accepting this statement of use, I agree to not distribute my user name and password to unauthorized parties. I agree to keep the Multimost materials confidential. I agree that I will not provide the Multimost materials to profit making companies and organizations; I will not make the Multimost materials available to the media or to place or post them on any internet or computer-accessible websites.

I agree that the Multimost materials will be used only for the planned experiment described here and will not be given to any third party. Please insert here a description of the planned experiment (use additional pages if required):

For intended publications we have to require the accordance of the institution in advance.

In case of an allowed publication of the experiment using the Multimost materials, we have to add the following sentence in the Acknowledgements:

“The Multimodal Stimulus Set was developed by T.R. Schneider, S. Debener and A.K. Engel at the Dept. of Neurophysiology and Pathophysiology, University Medical Center Hamburg-Eppendorf, Germany.“

In addition, reference to the Multimodal Stimulus Set within the Material and Methods section shall be done in the following way:

“Auditory and visual stimuli were obtained from the Multimodal Stimulus Set (Schneider, Engel & Debener, 2008).“

Schneider, T.R., Engel, A.K., Debener, S., 2008. Multisensory Identification of Natural Objects in a Two-Way Crossmodal Priming Paradigm. Exp Psychol. 55, 121-131.

Within 30 days of receiving your faxed and signed copy of the Statement of Use, you will receive a username and password and the link to download the Multimost materials.
