

Within the curriculum of the Non-Medical PhD-Programme the Institute of Medical Biometry and Epidemiology

offers the following statistics lecture series:

Advanced statistics

The lectures are open for all members of the faculty of medicine.

Lectures :

06.10.2026 : Causal inference

13.10.2026 : Cluster in your data - Mixed models (hierarchical or multilevel models)

20.10.2026 : Fill the gap - How to handle missing data

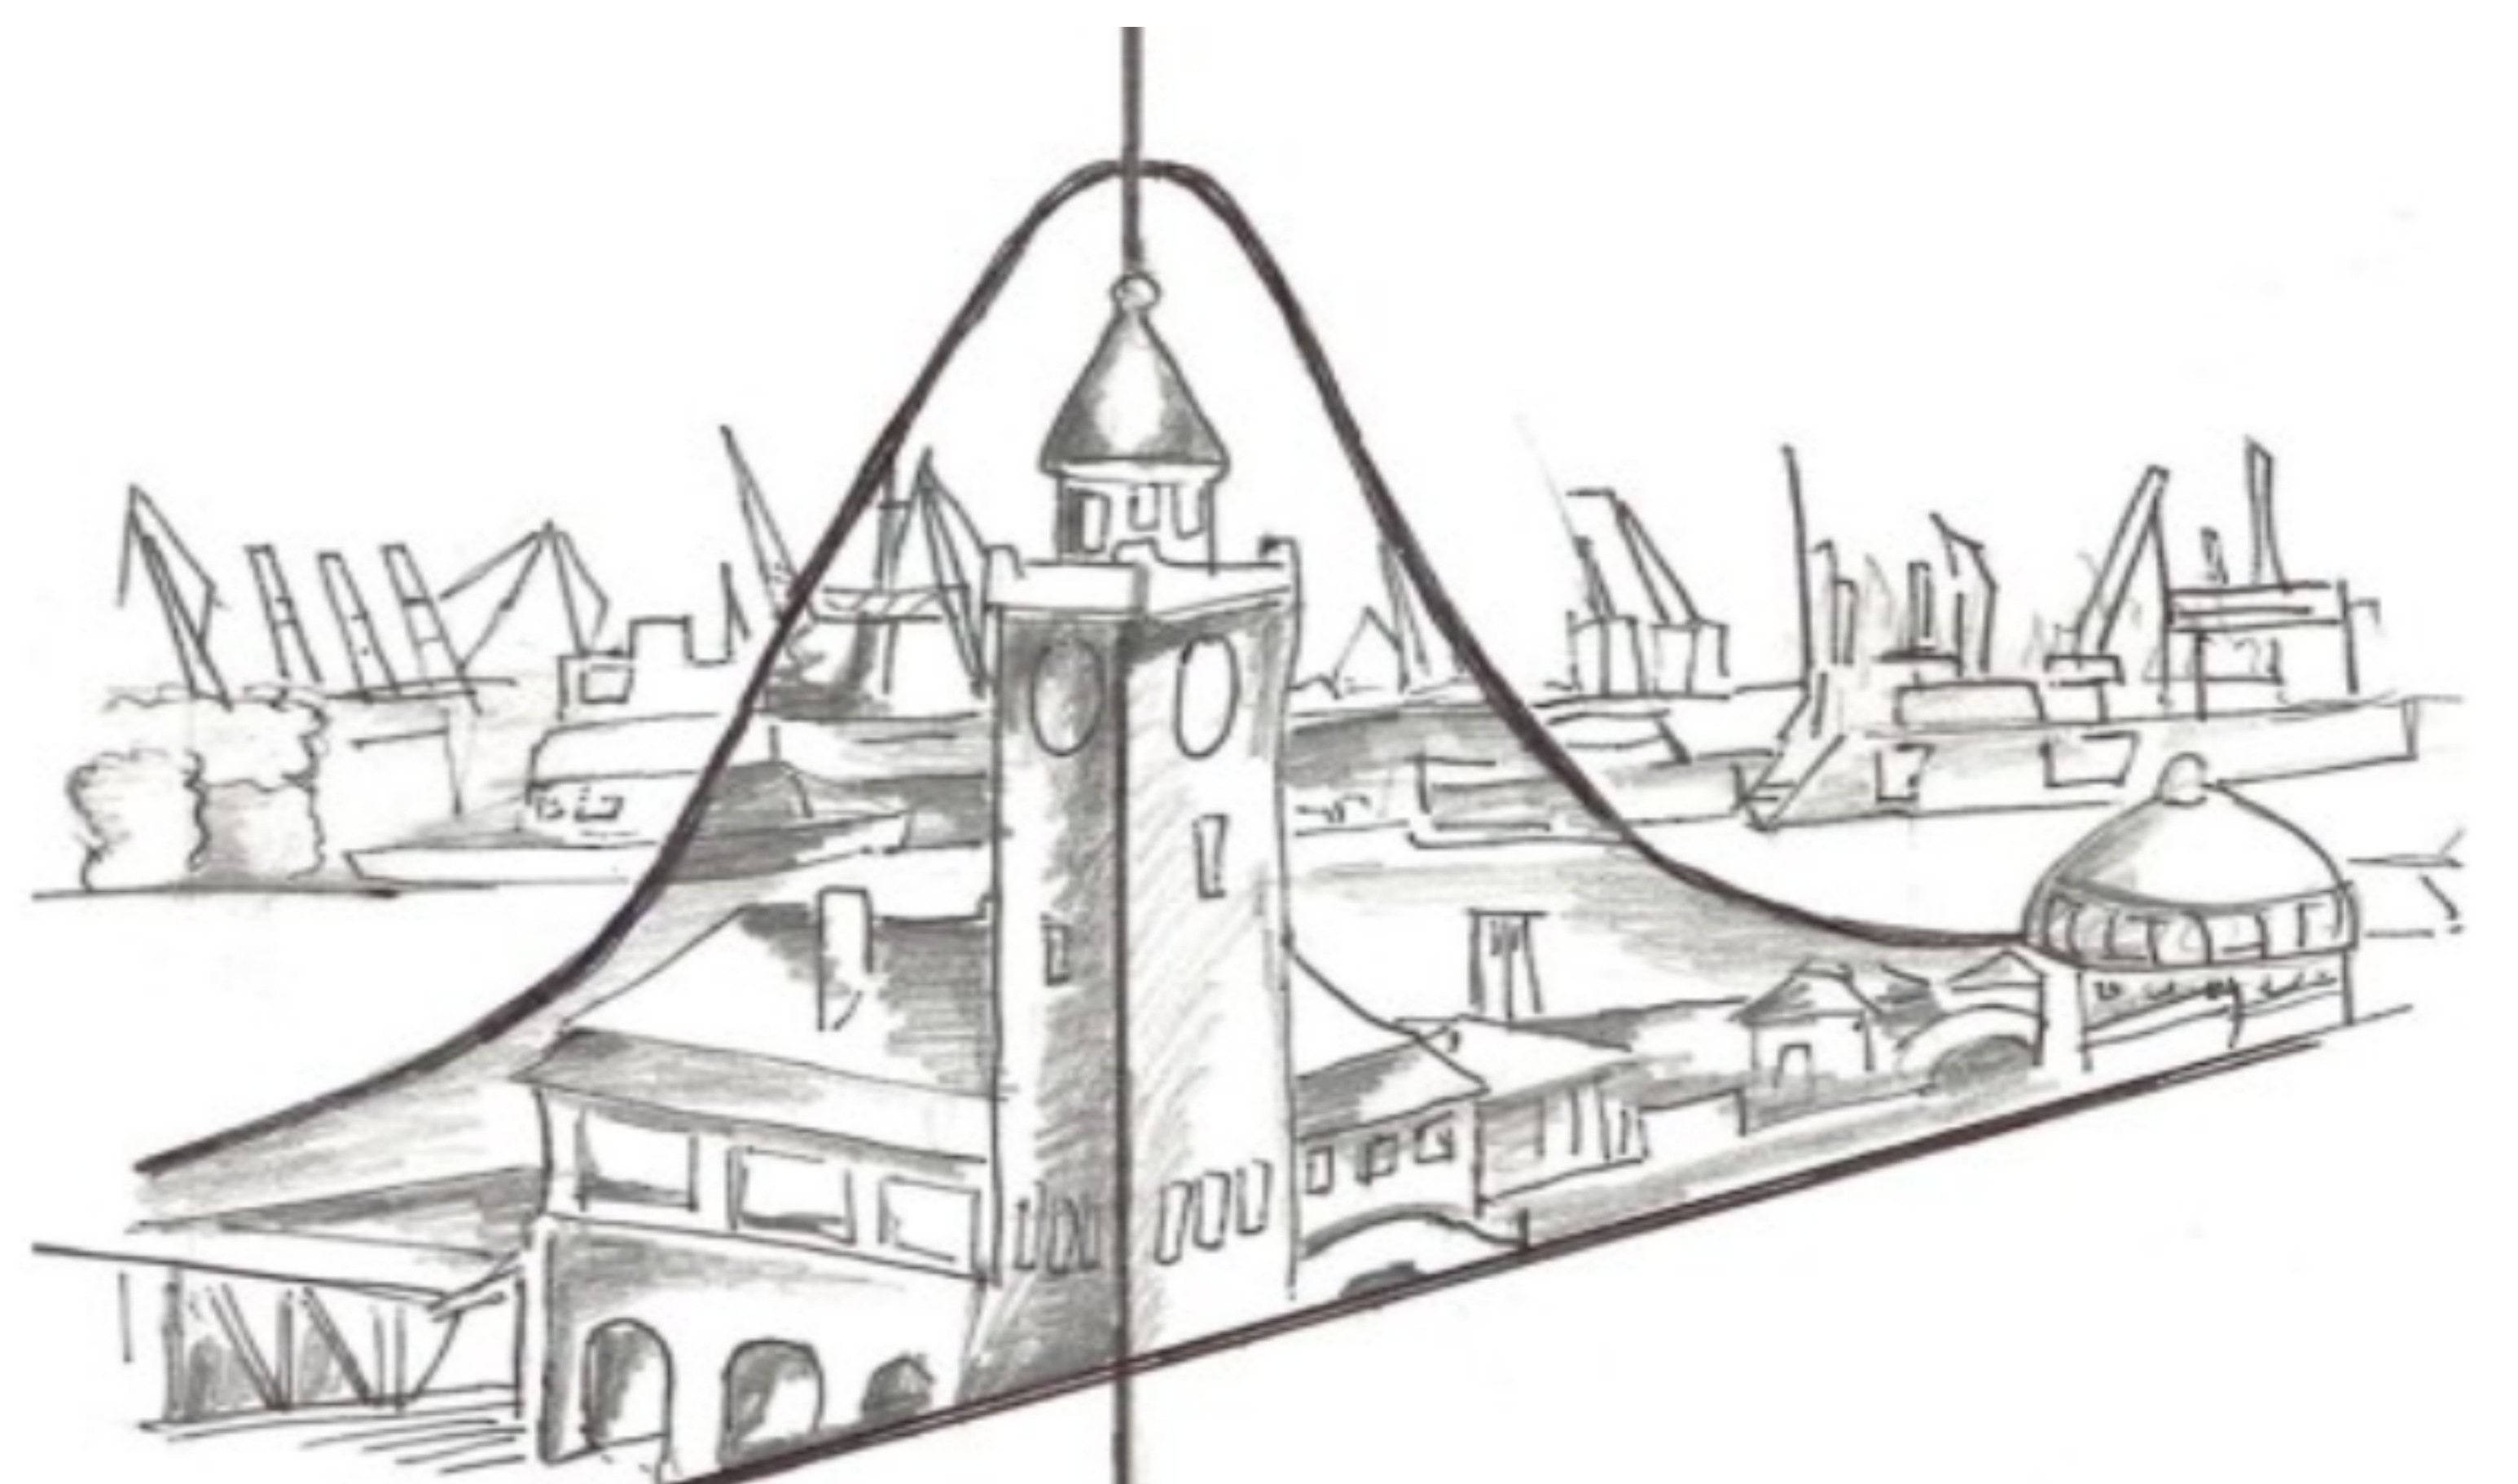

27.10.2026 : My rate to die - Time to event analysis

03.11.2026 : How to evaluate screening methods - Diagnostic studies

10.11.2026 : Machine learning

When and where? 16.00h - 17.30h

The lecture halls will be announced by email.

Procedure:

Participants of the Non-Medical PhD-Programme can receive credit points (CPs) for this lecture series. For 1 CP attendance of at least 4 of the 6 sessions is required.

Registration:

Participants of the PhD-Programme register via the Moodle-Course "Non-medical PhD-Programme". Other participants are asked for prior registration via email (phd-info@uke.de).